

Exploring new potential

Business prospects led Chamber officials to Germany and China this spring.

Teaming up in Hannover for a look at bilateral trade possibilities there and in Lower Saxony were (l to r) David Berzina, executive vice president for Chamber Economic Development; Melonye Whitson, director of Chamber Local Business Development; Dr. Hartmut Selle, Hannoverimpuls project director for International Affairs; and Ulrich Hartmann, business development consultant for Lower Saxony.

GERMANY

A joint six-day trip with Fort Worth Sister Cities took Chamber representatives to Zhaoqing northwest of Hong Kong and Guiyang where the itinerary included tours of schools. Students were eager to meet the American contingent that included Lacy Kreger, the Chamber's Economic Development research manager.